

Welcome to Palmyra Township, Ohio Online

Palmyra Township was founded in 1810 and is located in Southeastern Portage County in Northeastern Ohio which is midway between Akron and Youngstown, with Cleveland and Pittsburg, PA within an hour's drive. Palmyra Township's neighbors are Atwater Township, Berlin Township, Charlestown Township, Edinburg Township, Deerfield Township, Milton Township, Newton Township, and Paris Township. Palmyra Township is formed from the Connecticut Western Reserve. As of 2000, there were 2,785 people in the township. Palmyra Township covers an area of 26 square miles. Palmyra Township is surrounded by three recreational lakes: Lake Milton, Berlin Reservoir, and West Branch Reservoir.

Palmyratownship.com is provided as a 24 hour resource for those who live, work, or visit our community. Here you can locate news and information about Palmyra Township and also contact your Township representatives in all departments. We hope that visitors to our website will get a feel for why Palmyra Township is a great Township for economic development, education, recreation, as well as a great place to raise a family.

We will be updating our website regularly with current news items, events, and agenda proceedings.

We hope you find this site informative and welcome your comments. Please feel free to email us at township@palmyratownship.com